Outpouring of Community Support

When a police officer goes to work and kisses family members goodbye, there is always an element of the unknown which paves his or her way. Often, there is an unsettled feeling among family members as their loved one walks out that door to serve and protect the community. However, officers knowing the daily risk, forge on, true to their oath to serve and protect.

In light of recent tragic events nationwide involving law enforcement, the Goodyear Police Department has received a tremendous outpouring of love and support from community members and for this we are very grateful!

Recently, it seems that almost on a daily basis, when officers come to work, they have been surprised by meals, treats, baked goods, flowers, cards, goodie bags and gift cards from the supportive citizens of Goodyear and neighboring cities.

We are so humbled and overwhelmed with emotion and gratitude! We wish to take this opportunity to thank those who have been thinking of us and those who have gone out of their way to show support and encouragement for Goodyear Police Department members. - Thank you!

From the Mayor

BEING MAYOR REQUIRES AN ACTIVE LIFESTYLE AND TIME MANAGEMENT. A DAY IN THE LIFE...

Mayor
Georgia
Lord

Recently, I was asked by a Goodyear resident to describe what "a day in the life" is like for the city's Mayor. While Goodyear's Mayor is technically a "part-time" role, I can assure you that my schedule is anything but. Serving as a local elected official does not follow a traditional work schedule, and the many boards and committees on which I serve often call for early mornings and late nights.

Currently, I serve on the Maricopa Association of Governments' Regional Council, Transportation Policy committee, and Economic Development Committee. I also serve on the Greater Phoenix Economic Council Board of Directors, the Abrazo West Campus Board of Trustees, the Arizona Mayors' Education Roundtable, the WESTMARC Board of Directors and Executive Committee, the Luke West Valley Council, and the General Administration, Human Resources and Elections Committee with the Arizona League of Cities and Towns.

In addition to representing our city with these external organizations, I also participate in a number of community events on a weekly basis, including ribbon cuttings, grand openings, public forums, discussion panels, HOA meetings, and many others. I also travel across the country regularly for economic development and business recruitment activities, conferences and trainings, and meetings with our Congressional delegation. Further, I lead each of the City Council's work sessions and regular meetings which take place on Monday evenings at the Goodyear Justice Center. And, of course, I spend quality time with my husband, Ron, our children, grandchildren, and friends whenever I have the opportunity to do so.

Holding the office of the Mayor of this great city requires an active lifestyle and tremendous time management, and it is truly a privilege and an honor. I am thankful that you have entrusted me with the responsibility of serving as your representative in the aforementioned capacities, and I am exceptionally proud to serve as the city's Mayor.

Council Corner

GOODYEAR ENCOURAGES RESIDENTS TO "MAKE A DIFFERENCE."

The city of Goodyear takes pride in the contributions of its many generous citizens, businesses, and nonprofit organizations that serve our community on a daily basis. Now, more than ever, we depend on the generosity of these individuals and organizations to help our residents maintain an excellent quality of life.

Each year, on the fourth Saturday in October, the city participates in Make a Difference Day – the largest nationally recognized day of service to others. During this event, residents convene to work on projects that will benefit local neighborhoods and the surrounding community. Last year, participants assisted in painting the homes of two senior citizens, 117 fire hydrants, cleaning and weeding areas in need, and several other services projects.

This year, Make a Difference Day will take place on Saturday, October 22, kicking off at 7 a.m. at Goodyear City Hall, 190 N. Litchfield Road. Volunteers will assemble playground equipment, repaint the homes of residents in need, and assist with projects at community centers, parks, and city buildings. To learn more and to register as a participant, visit www.goodyearaz.gov and search Make a Difference Day. I highly encourage you to participate in this opportunity to serve others, and to encourage your neighbors, friends, family, and colleagues to participate as well.

Message from Goodyear Police Chief, Jerry Geier

“The department is committed to transparency...”

The Goodyear Police Department, a professional and progressive organization, takes great pride in providing excellent customer service with integrity to the community it serves. The 2016-17 fiscal year is now underway and the department looks forward to growth by adding eight new sworn officer positions this year. Fulfilling our commitment to expansion is a priority. Efforts toward expansion include the recent addition of the new Property and Evidence Building and the construction of the new Police Operations Building, scheduled to open this winter. Finally, we continue our commitment to transparency, innovation and public safety through our many community policing programs.

During these unsettling times, now more than ever, the Goodyear Police Department is committed to providing an atmosphere of security for its residents, accomplished through our commitment to intelligence based policing. The department is committed to transparency through the use of body cameras, open communication with community members and enhanced social media. Community policing programs such as Coffee with a Cop, community events, Police/ School Substations and the School Resource Officer Program provide opportunities for the public to interact directly with officers, ask questions, voice concerns and develop a working partnership with local law enforcement, all resulting in a low crime rate in the city of Goodyear.

The Goodyear Police Department is a leader in the Valley and nation, striving to be a model agency in the law enforcement community. We believe in promoting organizational strategies that support the systematic use of community partnerships and problem-solving techniques, while already implementing the six pillars of the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing. Goodyear Police Department currently embraces these pillars and continues to emphasize the pillar on training and education through the specialized training of officers in the areas of de-escalation, mental health, diversity and use of force.

The men and women of the Goodyear Police Department feel humbled by the outpouring of support and encouragement we have received from community members over that past several months. We look forward to the continued partnership with community members with the goal of keeping the city of Goodyear safe and prosperous. I am honored to serve as your Chief of Police and I invite you to contact me with any comments, questions, or suggestions you might have about the Police Department.

Focus on Community Policing

As part of the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing, Pillar 4 focuses on Community Policing and Crime Reduction. According to the document, "Community policing requires the active building of positive relationships with members of the community." According to Police Chief Jerry Geier, "the Goodyear Police Department not only incorporates Community Policing into its everyday practice, it holds Community Policing as a deep seeded core value, one which is a top priority of the Goodyear Police Department."

The Goodyear Police Department strives to build solid relationships with the community members we serve. One of the highlights for officers is taking the time to visit with citizens at our quarterly Coffee with a Cop event. "This is a great opportunity for the public to engage with members of the Police Department with no specific agenda. We welcome conversation, questions, concerns or just the time to visit over a cup of coffee," said Chief Geier. Other community engagement events and programs which are ongoing include: community safety events, GAIN, the School Resource Officer Program, School/Police Substation Program, Explorer Program, Neighborhood Watch, Ride-Along Program, Teen Academy, Citizens' Police Academy, and the Prescription Drug Disposal Program, just to name a few.

We are YOUR police department and we want to get to know YOU! Please join us and get involved in our community policing programs or events; come out and say hi, introduce yourself and join our community partnership!

Goodyear Police Want to Return your Property!

Did you know you can claim your lost or stolen property by simply surfing the city's website? The Goodyear Police Department has custody of a variety of property either turned in by the public, abandoned, or used as evidence.

To view the list of property, visit www.goodyearaz.gov/police and select 'Property Disposition' from the menu on the left, or call 623-882-7674.

Adequate proof of ownership is required. Property not claimed within 30 days of the initial posting may be disposed in compliance with City Code.

The Goodyear Police Department holds transparency as one of its core values while striving to be an exceptional law enforcement agency. By modeling best practice policies and procedures, these new cameras will help keep the community and police officers safe – a win-win situation for all.

Body Cameras come to the Goodyear Police Department

As part of its community policing philosophy and in an effort to add yet another layer of transparency, the Goodyear Police Department has begun using police-worn body cameras. According to the President's Task Force on 21st Century Policing, a document which guides law enforcement agencies toward better accountability: Implementing new technologies can give police departments an opportunity to fully engage and educate communities in a dialogue about their expectations for transparency, accountability, and privacy.

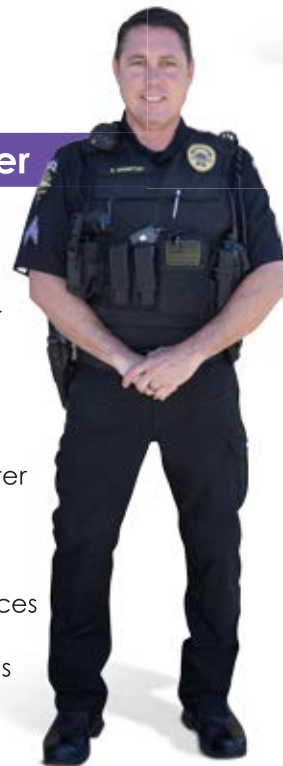

"This is an additional step by the department to build positive relationships and accountability with community members," said Goodyear's Police Chief Jerry Geier. "Currently, several cameras have hit the streets but within the next couple of months, all patrol officers will be wearing cameras."

The department has gone to extensive lengths to implement a comprehensive policy regarding the use of these body cameras. It takes into consideration privacy and the protection of personal information of: juveniles; sensitive and confidential information; anonymous tips; private residences; as well as police tactics and communications. In addition, staff have done extensive research on best practices in data storage and retrieval.

There are considerable advantages to the use of body cameras worn by police. Evidence shows that when the public is aware that body cameras are in use by police, there is often rapid de-escalation of the situation, while capturing evidence.

Officer Eric Webster

Sergeant Eric Webster has overseen the School Resource Officer unit since October 2015. He has been with the Goodyear Police Department since 2002 when he started as a reserve officer and was hired as a full-time officer in January 2007. He retired from the U.S. Air Force after completing 22 years of service. Sergeant Webster has served in the Training Division and most recently in the Community Services Unit. "I am excited to bring the community policing philosophies I have learned and apply them in our schools. I plan to continue to improve our outreach to the students who we serve and improve our awareness education programs," said Sergeant Webster. "Our goal as School Resource Officers is to develop relationships with students by serving as mentors, counselors, as well as teachers. Our unit is currently standardizing a response protocol for all Goodyear schools, providing a more efficient emergency response to lockdown procedures."

Meet Your Goodyear Police School Resource Officers

Officer Don Host

Officer Don Host has been the school resource officer assigned to Millennium High School since January. In addition to Millennium, he currently serves at Western Sky Middle School; Mabel Padgett Elementary; Palm Valley Elementary; and the Great Hearts Trivium Academies. He has been a Goodyear police officer since January 2008. He spent six years on patrol and performed as a field training officer. Officer Host and has been a member of the School Resource Officer Unit since February 2014.

According to Officer Host, "I am excited about the new school year and hope to continue visiting classrooms and developing relationships with students. In addition, my goal is to mentor students who have an interest in becoming police officers in the future, as well as engage in open dialogue with students who have a negative opinion of law enforcement." Currently, he is presenting a Standard Response Protocol to all Goodyear schools in reference to lockdown procedures. The goal is to get all of the schools and districts in Goodyear unified on lockdown procedures and terminology. This will help simplify procedures for school administrators and improve safety for all students.

Officer Ryan Konings is the school resource officer assigned to Desert Edge High School. In addition, he serves Wildflower Elementary; Desert Thunder Elementary; BASIS Academy; West Valley Christian School; Eliseo C. Felix; Copper Trails Elementary; and Harvest Prep Academy.

Officer Konings has been with the Goodyear Police Department for 14 years, and this is his second assignment as a school resource officer. "I am happy to be back in the schools and I look forward to a great school year with several goals in mind," said Officer Konings. Some of the goals Officer Konings has for Desert Edge High School this year include: working with the school's parent liaison in order to conduct trainings; informational talks with parents; as well as working with the school to provide the best possible learning environment for the students and teachers.

Officer Ryan Konings

Officer Michael McFadden

Officer Michael McFadden has been the school resource officer assigned at Estrella Foothills High School since January, and also serves the following elementary schools: Estrella Mountain; Westar; Desert Star; Bradley Academy; and Centerra Mirage. He has been employed with the Goodyear Police Department since July 2013.

Officer McFadden says, "I enjoy being a school resource officer, and feel it is one of the best assignments of a police officer. Connecting with students and watching them grow into productive adults is just one of the many perks." He enjoys teaching and counseling with students. As a certified Law Enforcement General Instructor, he recently led a Forensic Science Class in which the students learned how law enforcement solved a homicide case using trace evidence, science and math.

Some of his goals for Estrella Foothills include improving community awareness and having the students take pride in their work and community. Implementing an environment in which there is a zero-tolerance for bullying and drug-free school zone is another goal of Officer McFadden's, as this will improve student safety, which is the top priority.

Traffic Safety Tip

Goodyear Police want you to stay safe.

This month: Impaired Driving

Arizona Revised Statute 28-1381. Each year, thousands of people are arrested for driving under the influence. Despite having harsh penalties and a 'no tolerance' approach in Arizona, this continues to be a problem every day.

Some things to consider...

- Since the law states "Impaired to the slightest degree," an individual can be arrested even if his/her blood alcohol level is below .08.
- An arrest can be made for driving impaired not only by alcohol, but also by drugs, including prescription drugs.
- Unlike most other moving violations, an arrest can be made on private property. Persons under 21 years old can be arrested and possible license suspension for any alcohol concentration in the body while operating a motor vehicle.

Driving impaired is 100% preventable! The key is to have a plan before drinking; arrange for a private ride service or taxi; designate a sober driver; or call a family member or friend. Goodyear Police encourage responsible drinking... do not drive if impaired!

Traffic-related questions can be sent to Goodyear PD Traffic Unit Sgt. J. Seabright at jseabright@goodyearaz.gov or call at 623-882-7735.
