Rosalva Zimmerman
City Manager's Office

How long have you worked for the city:

Nearly three months.

What do you do:

I am the Assistant to the Mayor. I accompany her to meetings, conduct research, and liaise with department leaders and council on constituent issues. I also supervise two staff members in the City Manager's Office.

Favorite thing about working for the city:

I have been amazed at the warm and welcoming environment here. I have missed the family atmosphere in local government and am thrilled to be experiencing it again.

Favorite core value:

I value Integrity the most because as a public servant, I am held to a high standard of trustworthiness and transparency. I am not only accountable to our city administration, but to the residents of Good-year. That is a responsibility I take very seriously and always want to conduct myself in a manner that is above reproach.
