How long have you worked for the city:

Approximately four years.

What do you do:

I maintain and establish new contracts for the city. I'm responsible for the procurement of goods and services and seek the best value in regards to quality and price. My main responsibilities are to procure goods and services for Police, Fire and Parks and Recreation.

Favorite thing about working for the city:

How employees are treated as family. The city is always looking for ways on how to work as a team, helping each other and implementing new ideas to make sure employees stay well and safe on the job, physically and emotionally.

Favorite core value:

I like them all. But if I had to choose one core value, it would be empathy. We have to be empathetic to one another in order to make life easier.

What do you like to do in your spare time:

Spend time with my family.
