

CORE VALUES

EMPATHY

OPTIMISM

INTEGRITY

INNOVATION

ADAPTABILITY

INITIATIVE

Paul Deal Public Works

Where did you work before this position:

Ak-Chin Indian Community.

What do you do:

I maintain the hardware and software that automates our various systems: water and wastewater monitoring, control and reporting to operators, valves, motors, flow, level and alarms, etc.

Favorite thing about working for the city:

The employees are very courteous and professional.

Favorite core value:

Adaptability, because in my view this trait incorporates the other values if you want to succeed properly.

Fun Facts

What do you do for fun:

I like to play racquetball and pickleball as often as I can with all my good friends in that tight-knit community.

Childhood nickname:

They called me PBDK when I was young, which stood for Paul Brian Deal Kid. Sometimes I was called "The Kid."

Dream vacation:

My dream vacation is SCUBA diving in Cancun in November.

Next on your bucket list:

To go moose hunting.

If you could have one super power:

It would be the ability to fly!