Please be advised: Goodyear Community Funding recipients are prohibited from using Goodyear community funding to engage in inherently religious activities, such as proselytizing, scripture study, or worship.

Funded faith-based organizations (FBOs) may, of course, engage in inherently religious activities; however, these activities must be separate in time or location from the funded program.

Moreover, funded organizations must not compel program beneficiaries to participate in inherently religious activities.

Funded organizations must not discriminate in the delivery of services or benefits.

By signing this Authorized Representative Acknowledgement Form you agree not to use Goodyear Community Funding resources for any of the prohibited activities.
